A Quiet Wedding.

Miss Marian Kirkman, sister of Mrs. Joseph Topham, was quietly married on August 13, 1914, to Acting Dental Surgeon Edwin M. Kennedy, Medical Corps, U. S. A. The marriage was solemnized at the home of Rev. Dr. Scudder, Honolulu, T. H. Lieut. and Mrs. Topham and Miss Laura Topham as witnesses composed the wedding party. Dr. and Mrs. Kennedy are at present at Haleiwa and will be at home after September 1 at the Cavalry cantonment at Schofield Barracks—Army and Navy Journal of Sept. 5.

Off to College.

Miss Laura Atherton, the youngest daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Charles H. Atherton, left in the Manoa Tuesday en route to an eastern college where she will remain during the year. Miss Atherton is one of the favorites in the younger set and is an active member of the Minute Club.

Mrs. Matthews' Dinner.

Mrs. A. F. Matthews (Lydia McStocker) was hostess at a daintily appointed dinner on Thursday evening at her home on Lunalilo street. Delicate pink blossoms were gracefully arranged in an artistic centerpiece for the table. After dinner Dr. and Mrs. Matthews motored to the Country Club with their guests and danced to the music of the electric piano. Covers were laid for Mr. and Mrs. E. E. Dodge, Captain and Mrs. McDonald and Dr. and Mrs. Matthews.

Dinner for Mr. and Mrs. Bibbero.

Mr. and Mrs. Sidney Bibbero (Constance Sampson) were the guests of honor at an informal dinner last night at which Mrs. C. Cunha was hostess at her bungalow at Waikiki.

Mrs. Charles Chillingworth's Luncheon.

One of the delightful affairs of the week was the informal luncheon at which Mrs. Charles F. Chillingworth was hostess on Thursday in honor of Mrs. Francis Gay. The color scheme for the decorations was gold and white and yellow and white daisies were actively combined to carry out the scheme. Covers were laid for Mrs. F. Gay, the guest of honor; Princess Kahanaloa, Mrs. Ernest Ross, Mrs. A. N. Campbell, Mrs. William Williamson, Mrs. Albert Waterhouse, Mrs. Dan Thomas, Mrs. William Chillingworth and the hostess.

Miss Hoogs Entertains.

Miss Belle McCarrison was the guest of honor at a surprise shower on Thursday evening at which Miss Fanny Hoogs was hostess. The guests met at the McCarrison home and after dinner quietly took possession of the drawing room at Miss Hoogs' home, where the guest of honor had dined. A clever little piece of poetry was attached to each article which was planned to help furnish the kitchen of the bride. Miss Hoogs' gift was a lei of various kitchen furnishings strung with violets. After Miss McCarrison had received her many gifts motors carried the guests to the Country Club, where the evening was devoted to dancing. Those present were Miss Belle McCarrison, Miss Violet Atherton, Miss Dorothy Guild, Miss Marjorie Gilman, Mrs. Ellis, Miss Ruth McChesney, Mrs. Frank Hoogs, Mrs. Hudson, Miss Sarah Lucas, Mrs. Dan McCarrison, Miss Renny Catton, Mrs. Cyril Hoogs, Percy Nottage, Mr. Ellis, James Morgan, Frank Hoogs, Cyril Hoogs, Stanley McKeen, Harry Lucas, Bob McCarrison, Ned Loomis, Will Hoogs, Dr. Hawley and the hostess.

Dinner at Schofield.

Colonel and Mrs. Lyman W. V. Kennon entertained at dinner at their quarters at Schofield Barracks last night in honor of Lieutenant and Mrs. Livingston Watrous, who returned from their honeymoon, spent at Lake Tahoe, in the Matsonia. After dinner the guests were entertained by music furnished by the military band. Covers were laid for Lieutenant and Mrs. Livingston Watrous, Colonel and Mrs. Bromwell, Captain and Mrs. John R. Thomas, Mrs. Atkinson, Major Gunghard, Captain and Mrs. Mitchell, Captain Childs, Lieutenant Maynard, Captain Leach, Miss Smith and Colonel and Mrs. Kennon.

Society Personals

Mrs. R. J. Buchly is booked to leave for the mainland in the Matsonia next Wednesday.

Lieutenant and Mrs. Orville N. Tyler of Schofield Barracks motored to town for a few hours on Tuesday.

Mrs. John Henry Magoon, who has recently welcomed a pretty little baby girl into her home, has left the hospital and is again at home.

A number of army folk spent the week at Haleiwa, among them being Major and Mrs. Michael J. Lenihan and Captain and Mrs. Charles S. Lincoln.

Sidney Plummer, who left for the mainland a few weeks ago to visit his parents, is expected home in the Sierra Monday.

Mr. and Mrs. E. Faxon Bishop, who have been visiting on the mainland for some time past, are expected home in the Sierra Monday morning.

Mrs. Frederick J. Lowrey is still at Niihau, her beautiful country home in Nuuanu. It was expected that Mrs. Lowrey would return to town in September but she has decided to remain in the valley for some weeks yet.

Miss Avis G. Yates, a society girl of Michigan, popular both in social circles of the service folk and with town residents.

Mr. and Mrs. Ben Baldwin arrived in Honolulu Friday and will leave in the Matsonia on Tuesday for a three months' tour of the mainland. Mr. and Mrs. Baldwin are planning to visit friends in San Francisco and in the east.

The cool winds of Haleiwa have lured a number of society folk out of town this week, among them being Lieutenant and Mrs. J. N. Preston, Mrs. William A. Reed, Captain and Mrs. Benjamin Watkins and Mrs. James E. Bell, wife of Captain Bell.

Friends of Miss Eva Focke, daughter of Mrs. H. Focke, will be glad to know that she has landed safely in London. For the past few years Miss Focke has been studying in Berlin and Paris and for some time after the war broke out her whereabouts were not known definitely.

Miss Madeline Ross, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. George Ross, formerly of Honolulu, and later of Aiea, has returned to Miss Meriman's school for girls in Oakland where she is completing her senior year. She will graduate in December and will then enter the University of California.

Word has been received in Honolulu by his parents that Gavin Bush, the eldest son of Mr. and Mrs. G. Fred Bush, has arrived in St. Louis, Mo., and is with the Fulton Iron Works. He is a graduate of the University of California and many of his friends hoped that when he had completed his education he would locate in Honolulu.

The following clipping from the Santa Clara News of September 1st will be of interest to the many friends of Miss Mae Hayward, who visited in Honolulu this summer:

"Mrs. W. J. Hayward is in San Francisco where she went today to meet her daughter, Miss Mae Hayward, who returns today from a delightful visit to Honolulu."

The following clipping is from San Francisco Chronicle of recent date:

"During the absence of Mrs. James McManus, who is in Honolulu with her niece, Miss Edith Foster, the McManus home on Pala avenue will be occumed by Mr. and Mrs. Charles Foster and their family. The McManus home is near that of Mrs. William Rawlinz (Mildred Foster), on Ricardo avenue."

The many friends of Miss Barbara Bon, the beautiful niece of Mrs. Charles Bon, who visited Honolulu two years ago will be delighted to know that she has completed her high school course in the Cheyenne high school and has gone to Baltimore, Maryland, to study art. Miss Bon was entertained extensively while in the islands and has promised to return for another visit before she completes her education.

Mrs. R. W. Anderson with her daughter Ruth expects to sail for San Francisco on Tuesday in the Matsonia. They will be met there by Dr. Anderson, who left in the Manchuria last week, taking with him his big touring car. The Andersons will be gone for some time and will devote several weeks to touring in California in their private car.

Miss Anderson is one of Honolulu's most popular society belles and her presence at the gay functions of the Junior set will be sadly missed.

Two of the best known women in the United States, who were in Germany at the outbreak of the war, have returned to New York with their daughters, Mrs. Phil H. Sheridan, widow of Gen. Sheridan, with her three daughters, May, Irene and Louise, and Mrs. Harriet L. Harrison, widow of former President of the United States Harrison, with her daughter, Miss May Herod, were homecoming passengers on the Ryndam. Both Mrs. Sheridan and Mrs. Harrison freely express their appreciation of the courteous treatment they received at the hands of the Germans.

In San Francisco social affairs are still at a lull for those who devote their time to the light and frivolous things during the winter are lingering at Delmonico, reluctant to put off the fluffy summer dresses for the more fashionable costumes of the city, and reluctant, too, to give up the outdoor sports which have demanded all their time during the summer months. For three months now everyone has been enthusiastic over golfing and caddies have been kept busy on the links from early morn till sundown.

Mr. and Mrs. Templeton Crocker have chosen Burlingame, rather than Delmonico for their summer retreat, and Mrs. Crocker has been hostess at a number of delightful entertainments during their sojourn there. One of these affairs of recent date was a picnic luncheon, many of the guests motoring from town to partake of Mrs. Crocker's hospitality.

FT. SHAFTER SOCIETY

[Special Star-Bulletin Correspondence] PORT SHAFTER, Sept. 19.—Lieut. George M. Halloran, 2d Infantry, returned to the post on the U. S. A. T. Logan, accompanied by his sister, Miss Halloran, who will remain here for an extended visit with her brother.

Although the regiment was away from the post, Monday evening at the Officers' Mess was a scene of great gaiety. Many of the wives of the "hikers," and the officers who did not accompany the regiment on its march around the island, as well as a great number of guests were present, making about eight tables in all. Mrs. Clyde B. Parker, having the highest score, was awarded the prize. Some of those enjoying the evening's pleasures were Capt. and Mrs. W. R. Gibson, Capt. and Mrs. W. T. Hannum, Capt. and Mrs. G. S. Gibbs, Capt. and Mrs. C. B. Parker, Mrs. B. W. Atkinson, Mrs. Randolph, Mrs. P. B. Malone, Mrs. B. H. Watkins, Mrs. F. A. Barker, Mrs. W. H. Johnson, Lieut. and Mrs. F. P. Black, Lieut. and Mrs. Frank S. Besson, Lieut. and Mrs. A. J. Booth, Lieut. and Mrs. J. R. Matheson, many of the Logan's passengers and others. Mrs. Warren T. Hannum and Mrs. Walter H. Johnson were hostesses for this week's meeting.

Capt. and Mrs. Warren T. Hannum gave a most delightful and elaborate dinner on Monday, the 14th, at their quarters in the cantonment. Covers at the beautifully appointed table were laid for Lieut. and Mrs. Lindsay C. Herkness, Lieut. and Mrs. R. F. Fowler and Lieut. J. M. Wright of the Logan; Lieut. and Mrs. J. R. D. Matheson, Lieut. and Mrs. C. C. Ges, Lieut. and Mrs. F. S. Besson, Lieut. A. K. B. Lyman and the host and hostess. Later the party enjoyed several rubbers of auction at the officers' mess where Monday "ladies' night" was held.

Mrs. L. O. Mathews and the Misses Lenihan were the guests of Dr. L. C. Mudd on Tuesday for an automobile trip to Haleiwa to visit the 2d Infantry in camp there. Arriving in the early afternoon the party indulged in a swim and the other pleasures the delightful resort affords. After a very enjoyable dinner at which several of the 2d Infantrymen were included, the party motored back, arriving home quite late.

After several days at Haleiwa, where the field officers of the 2d Infantry took their annual test ride, the regiment left Thursday morning to resume its march around the island. Having camped at several different points along the way the column will cross the Pali Sunday and return to the post.

Lieut. and Mrs. Raymond F. Fowler, Corps of Engineers, were the guests of Lieut. and Mrs. J. R. D. Matheson for the few days the transport Logan was in port. Lieut. A. K. B. Lyman also had as his guests Lieut. and Mrs. L. C. Herkness, who are en route to Manila.

Mrs. Franklin P. Jackson returned to the post on Tuesday on the Matsonia, after several months' visit on the Coast. Captain and Mrs. Jackson will soon make their home at Schofield Barracks, to which station Capt. Jackson has just recently been assigned.

Mrs. Ernest V. Smith, who for the past few months has been traveling in the States, will return to Honolulu on Monday. Mrs. Smith will arrive on the Sierra, as owing to the crowded condition of the transport she was unable to secure passage.

Mrs. Charles S. Lincoln and Mrs. M. J. Lenihan returned from Haleiwa on Wednesday evening. On their way homeward Mrs. Lenihan and Mrs. Lincoln were the guests of Major and Mrs. G. G. Bailey of Schofield Barracks for dinner.

Miss Catherine Lenihan, who has been spending the past week at Fort Kamehameha as the guest of Capt. and Mrs. S. W. French, will return to the post this afternoon.

LOCAL ARTIST IS EXHIBITING LATEST WORK

The latest works of D. Howard Hitchcock, the local artist, comprising 18 canvases each bearing the date of 1914, are being exhibited at the University club and are receiving warm praise from local lovers of art. These canvases show Mr. Hitchcock at his best, all possessing the warmth of color and tone which has won him high recognition for the artist.

The canvases will be on view at the club each evening and a cordial invitation is extended to the public to view them. The exhibition will come to a close September 26. Following is a list of those canvases which are being exhibited:

1. Sunset (The Cove).

Mrs. George Henry Tyson and her daughter Marie have been spending some time at their country home in Los Gatos where Mrs. Tyson has entertained at several of the most delightful of the summer affairs—informal house parties. It will be remembered that Marie Tyson visited Honolulu recently and was one of the most feted of the visitors to the islands.

The Hawaiian band, under the direction of Kapellmeister Henri Berger, will give a public concert at Kapolei park tomorrow afternoon, commencing at 3 o'clock. This morning the band played at Pier 2 for the regatta, and this afternoon is at the polo field at Moanalua.
